Hayward Lumber Co., Ltd.

I have read over the traffic regulations contained in this booklet, and find that they are correct and up-to-date.

While it is true that motor accidents in the Province of Alberta are high per capita, our local Police records show that the number of automobile accidents, fatal and otherwise, have diminished since 1930 and 1931. This good record can be maintained by the efficient enforcement of traffic regulations, coupled with the co-operation of the motoring public.

I earnestly solicit the continued co-operation of all motorists and pedestrians. If these traffic regulations are read carefully, and the citizens endeavor to comply with them, accidents, which are in most cases avoidable, can be reduced to a minimum.

A. G. SHUTE,
Chief Constable.

—DO YOU?

Within recent years automobile traffic on streets and highways has increased tremendously. If every motorist were permitted to drive as he pleased, serious accidents and utter confusion would result. Traffic regulations, signals and signs were devised for the benefit of the majority, to prevent such conditions. They are useless unless obeyed.

There are several locations which require the special attention of the motorist: In front of schools and playgrounds, where children are liable to run out in your path—at grade crossings, where a much heavier vehicle may be met—at street intersections, where the view of other vehicles may be cut off. Be sure your car is under control at these points.

In this short period of time, even at lower speeds, a serious accident can occur if the driver is momentarily inattentive. You owe it to yourself, and to those whose lives may depend upon your skill as a motorist, to keep your mind on your driving and be alert at all times when behind the wheel.

Only a few seconds are saved by passing in these places instead of waiting for the straight away, but lives, time and money are lost by taking such needless chances.
